

Campus Security Authorities (CSA) – Clery Act One-Sheet

The safety of our university community is USC's top priority. As a CSA, you play an active part in campus safety.

The Jeanne Clery Campus Safety Act (Clery Act) is a federal consumer protection act designed to increase transparency around campus crime policy and statistics to help current and prospective students and employees to make informed decisions about their safety. It requires the university to disclose certain crime statistics and safety information in its Annual Security and Fire Safety Report. As a CSA, you are responsible to report Clery Act Crimes occurring on Clery Act Geography for inclusion in this report.
