

Youth Protection Certification for Non-University Organizations and Entities Operating Activities Involving Minors

Youth Protection Training Requirements

All non-university organizations and entities that operate camps, programs, activities or events on campus involving minors must provide training to their staff consistent with the university’s requirements, which includes the following topics:

- Appropriate conduct when interacting with, or in the presence of, minors;
- Child abuse and neglect prevention;
- Recognition of the signs and symptoms of child abuse and neglect; and
- Mandated reporter obligations, including reporting requirements and procedures.

Additionally, all individuals must read, understand and agree to abide by USC’s Guidelines for Interacting with Minors.

Organization/Entity and Activity Involving Minors Information

Please provide information about the activity/program that will be administered.

Entity/Organization name

Activity/ program name

Contact person’s name

Title

Contact person’s phone

Email

Sponsoring unit (university contact name, phone and email address)

Date(s) that minors will be on campus

Attestation

I, _____, attest on behalf of the organization named above that our youth protection training meets USC’s content requirements and has been completed within the past 12 months by all individuals employed by, contracted by, or volunteering for our organization/entity in connection with the camp, program, activity or event involving minors that will be administered. They have also read and agree to abide by USC’s Guidelines for Interacting with Minors.

Signature

Date

Please email this completed form and a list of all individuals (first and last names) who will be working in your camp, program, activity or event to USC’s Office of Youth Protection and Programming: minors@usc.edu